The heavy sleet of Tuesday night has done considerable damage to trees and shrubbery.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Miriam U. Davis to Mr. Frank Quinn Mitchell Tuesday evening, January 1.

A new story will begin in the GRAPHIC in two weeks. Send in your subscriptions now and begin the story with the opening chapter.

Thursday afternoon of last week a little son of John M. Davis was run over by Cochran's trotter, driven by Jap. Johnson, and had his left leg broken below the knee.

Eld. H. A. Northcutt has just closed a protracted meeting at Unionville, with seventy additions to the church. Strange to say an editor was one of the number.

They say Bigelow is suing "Bettie and the Baby" for half of their gift money, but the baby don't care a sou, so long as it can get plenty of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

One of the young men of the city sent his lady love a stick of candy four feet in length, as a Christmas present. He evidently expects her to be very sweet next time he calls.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps will give a festival in the Masonic Hall Saturday evening Dec. 29th from 6:30 to 11 p. m. A good oyster stew or a good square meal for 25 cts. All are invited.

Many beautiful and expensive presents were presented to friends and relatives Christmas. But perhaps none were more beautiful or more highly appreciated than the elegant gold watch and chain, which Mr. Henry Hannah presented to his wife Christmas eve.

Thursday evening the electric current was turned on and Kirksville, for the first time, was illuminated by electricity. The light reflected by the trees encased in icy armor made a beautiful spectacle, and crowds were out to note the wonderful effect of the new departure in street lighting.

One night last week W. J.
Wilkes went out to his creamery and poultry packing establishment. While going about the premises in the dark, he was shot at by his night watchman, Jo Miles, who thought some one was after a cheap Christmas turkey.
Hereafter when Mr. Wilkes goes about his premises after night, he will make his presence known before getting among the chicken coops.

The unfavorable weather interfered to some extent with the festivities of Christmas eve. However large crowds were in attendance at the Baptist, M. E. and Christian churches, where beautifully decorated trees loaded with gifts made glad the hearts of the children. At Greentop, Sublette, Sperry and Forest Grove, beautifully decorated buildings, magnificent trees, and Christmas treasures made the time one long to be remembered by all.

Sam Christ of Sperry and a companion, whose name is not learned, went to Greentop one day last week to celebrate the happy Christmas time. After imbibing too much of the ardent they became noisy and were locked up by the authorities in the waiting room of the depot. During the night they kicked out a window and made their escape. Sam was afterward arrested, but gained his freedom at a cost of thirty five dollars.

Mr. Fisher Boles of Candler, Fla., and Miss Addie Radd of LaBelle were married at the latter place Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock. The couple arrived in Kirksville by way of Q. O. & K. C.
Wednesday night en-route for their Florida home. They were accompanied as far as Kirksville by Messrs Richard Wright, Charley Gregory, Gabriel Bradshaw, James Radd, and Misses Pearl Radd, Lydia Calhoun, Nora Steele, Laura Ammerman and Dora En-banks.

Prof. Blake in his weather predictions for December, which we published three weeks ago, stated that there would be little stormy weather till near the close of the month. His predictions for January give a large amount of snow for this part of Missouri. He further says that the weather will not be as cold as the six preceding winters, but that an "old-fashioned" winter may be expected with a breaking away in February, and an early spring. If his predictions are correct farmers in this latitude may expect to plant corn in April. An early spring is predicted three months in advance.
Let our readers watch the outcome.

Last Saturday afternoon as Mrs. S. M. Link, and Miss Allie with two of the younger children were returning to town, from a visit at W. M. Gill's, the usually quiet buggy horse, which they were driving, concluded to run away. All efforts to stop him proved futile till the phaeton struck the gate post at the entrance to the public highway. Here the phaeton capsized and all the occupants were thrown out on the hard ground. The horse then dashed across the road and became entangled in the fence, when he broke loose from the vehicle and continued his flight down the road.
Mrs. Link and Miss Allie were quite seriously hurt and both have carried badly blackened eyes, as mementoes of the occasion, ever since. The younger children were not seriously hurt, but the phaeton

A Merry Christmas to the GRAPHIC.

We have had such nice fall and winter weather, that it does not seem much like Christmas time, but it is here, bringing with it many beautiful gifts of love and friendship. It is a day that be-the years to come make the world much better than they see it now.

Safe on his gentle breast—Safe, by his love o'er-shadowed, Sweetly her soul shall rest.
